1. Partnership with the CDG

The CDG supports the establishment and the operation of Christian Doppler Laboratories (CD Laboratories) at universities and non-university research institutions as well as Josef Ressel Centres (JR Centres) at universities of applied sciences.

- Our university/research institution is interested in the establishment and the operation of Christian Doppler Laboratories and External/International Modules.
- Our university of applied sciences is interested in the establishment and the operation of JR Centres and External/International Modules.

2. Legal framework of CD Laboratories/JR Centres

We note that the legal provisions governing CD Laboratories/JR Centres are set out in the regulations of the respective funding programme. We are prepared to sign the relevant contractual framework for the establishment and operation of a CD Laboratory/JR Centre and, if applicable, an External/International Module of a CD Laboratory/JR Centre. The decision on the establishment of a CD Laboratory/JR Centre and an External/International Module rests with the CDG Executive Board.

3. Website of the CDG

We agree to our logo being uploaded onto the CDG website www.cdg.ac.at and are happy to make it available to you (office@cdg.ac.at).

4. Attachments to the application

We attach an extract of the supplementary register/company register/register of associations to the application.
